Waari Seva Experience in Dhule

On 11th June, Sevankur Bharat organised a Warkari Charan Seva in Dhule, where 30 students from different Colleges came together to serve with devotion. We reached Durga Mata Mandir at 7:30 p.m. and welcomed the arrival of the Warkaris and their Maharaj.

Under the guidance of Dr. Swapnil Deore (Dhule Vibhag Palak), Dr. Gaurav Koranne (Dhule Shahar Palak), and Dr. Rahul Gawali (Dhule Shahar Palak), we distributed water bottles and provided basic medication.

Dr. Gaurav Koranne also distributed ORS to ensure their hydration. Before leaving, we offered our namaskars, received blessings from the Maharaj and Warkaris. Though we couldn't walk the Waari, this simple act of seva left a lasting impact on our hearts.

-Vipula Vinod Ahire

(ACPM Dental College Dhule – 2nd Year)

Waari Seva Experience at Nizampur

On 12th June, 9 students from Government Medical College, Nandurbar, had the opportunity to serve Warkaris near Nizampur through Sevankur Bharat's Waari Seva initiative.

We offered first aid and foot massages to the Warkaris walking hundreds of kilometres with unwavering faith. Their gratitude for our simple help touched us deeply and reminded us what true devotion looks like. The residents of Nizampur welcomed us like family. We were served delicious homemade meals.

-Shubham Pagdala

(3rd Year MBBS, GMC Nandurbar)

Charan Seva at Sant Nivruttinath Maharaj Palkhi

On 13th June, we were truly blessed to serve in one of Maharashtra's most sacred pilgrimages, the Shri Sant Nivruttinath Maharaj Palkhi Procession, which travels from Trimbakeshwar to Pandharpur.

We reached the campsite in the morning and distributed basic medicines, offered foot massages to the tired Warkaris, while others carried out basic health checkups.

After the mid-day meal, we were blessed with darshan of the Palkhi. We also had meaningful conversations with the Warkaris. During the event, we provided Charan Seva to nearly 200 Warkaris, while many others received basic medical aid. With gratitude in our hearts, we promised to return again. Jai Hari Vitthal!

-Aditya Omprakash Hoke

(Shri Saptashrungi Ayurvedic College & Hospital, Nashik)

Aapla Ghar Ashram Visit

On 14th June, on the occasion of senior Samarth Mundhe's birthday, students from Smt. Kashibai Navale Medical College had the opportunity to visit Aapla Ghar, an ashram located in Sinhgad, Pune.

The ashram is home to 35 orphaned children and 10 elderly individuals. We spent time talking, playing, and sharing snacks, fruits, and chocolates with the children.

Later, we visited Shri Kausalya Karad Rural Hospital and were inspired by the dedication of the medical team working tirelessly for the community. With warmth in our hearts, we left carrying unforgettable memories.

-Asmita Survase

(First-Year MBBS Student, SKNMC, Pune)

5 Waari Camp Kundewadi, Nasik

On 15th June, 6 students from ASS and VPMC College joined hands in seva during the Palkhi of Sant Nivruttinath Maharaj at Kundewadi, Sinnar (Nashik).

We reached the camp with hearts full of devotion and served the Warkaris with basic health checkups, medicine distribution, and charan seva. Each “thank you” from a Warkari felt like a blessing. Their eyes spoke of devotion, and their words of deep gratitude.

We carried back soulful memories and a strong promise in our hearts to return wherever there is a need to serve.

6 Medical Camp at Nirhale, Taluka Sinnar.

On 16th June, Sevankur Bharat organised a Medical Camp and Charan Seva at Nirhale, Taluka Sinnar, for Waari Seva.

As the chants of Hari Naam echoed around us, our hearts aligned with the rhythm of devotion.

We offered foot care, medicines, and gentle medical attention to hundreds of warkaris walking with faith and joy.

8 of us, along with Dr. Sushil Bagul, stood united in this Charan Seva. Each smile we received, every blessing shared, reminded us that true service lies not in grand acts but in small moments filled with empathy.

7

Informal meeting in Bhopal

On 17th June, building upon the inspiring Sevankur journeys of Dr. Rohit Khairnar and Dr. Ruturaj Sagale, an informal yet meaningful discussion was held in Bhopal.

The aim was to explore new ways to increase the involvement of medical students from the region in Sevankur Bharat and its selfless service initiatives.

Ideas were exchanged on how to build deeper connections, foster leadership, and create impactful opportunities for students to engage in seva.

8

A Heartfelt Conversation Over Dinner in Bhopal

We had a wonderful opportunity to reconnect with Dr. Roopnarayan Mandave over dinner in Bhopal.

Dr. Roopnarayan had visited Hedgewar Rugnalay last year, and his visit left a lasting impression. Now serving as a Pathologist at Allen Medical College, Bhopal, he expressed a deep desire to take up responsibilities and actively contribute to the mission of Sevankur Bharat.

We are excited to welcome him into more active roles in the Sevankur family and look forward to the value he will bring to our future endeavours.

9

Weekly Meeting at CSMSS Ayurved College

On 19th June, our weekly gathering took place at CSMSS Ayurved Mahavidyalaya, Chhatrapati Sambhajnagar.

During the session, we had an engaging discussion on several important matters. Like every year, suggestions for this year's educational tour were shared, with everyone actively participating.

We also proposed a new initiative to build a healthy reading habit among students. The idea of starting a book reading circle was received with great interest and positivity.

Meetings like these help us stay connected in our journey.

-Bhavana Bhimrao Mankari, First-Year Student
(CSMSS Ayurved Mahavidyalaya, Chhatrapati Sambhajnagar)

Madhya Pradesh Prant Chintan Activity

On 19th June, a meeting of Sevankur Bharat's active volunteers from the past two years was held in Jabalpur to mark the beginning of a new chapter for the Madhya Pradesh region.

The gathering focused on three key areas: Planning for the upcoming TDFN-MP, Formation of the Madhya Pradesh Prant Team, and Encouraging student participation in OWFN Sambhajnagar.

Vedika Jain has been selected as the Pramukh for TDFN-MP, and Shaktikumar Yadav will be contributing as Sah-Pramukh for the same.

With the guidance of MP Sayojak Dr. Ashish Pandey, the official MP Prant Team will soon be announced. This meeting ended on a warm and joyful note.

-Mahadev Padwal
(Madhya Pradesh Coordinator, Sevankur Bharat)

11

Informal meeting at Sukhsagar Medical College

On 20th June, an informal interaction was held with the Sukhsagar Medical College students who participated in the One Week for Nation (OWFN) 2025 at Betul.

The students enthusiastically shared their experiences and reflections from the Betul camp.

The discussion naturally transitioned into the upcoming Three Days for Nation event planned in Madhya Pradesh.

It was heartening to see their eagerness and determination to not only participate but also contribute actively in the planning and organising process.

12

Informal meeting with Aryan Singh's Family

On 20th June, we had the opportunity to spend time with Aryan Singh and his family in Jabalpur.

Aryan Singh, a first-year student of Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose Medical College, Jabalpur, and an active participant in One Week for Nation 2025 – Betul

Aryan is from Gurgaon, her sister and mother recently visited him in Jabalpur. We had the joy of spending time with them. This meeting was filled with warmth, values, and encouragement. Siddhant Pratap Singh and Shakti Kumar Yadav from NSCB also joined us.

It reminded us how every Sevankur volunteer brings along not just dedication, but the love and support of a whole family behind them.

Yoga Day at Sevankur Bharat

On 21st June, students from Sukh Sagar Medical College came together to celebrate International Yoga Day.

Almost 70 of our dearest students poured their hearts into the powerful Surya Namaskar Maha Yadnya, completing 108 Surya Namaskaras. It was more than just an exercise, it was a beautiful symphony of dedication, a testament to the unconditional love that binds us together, forging a true brotherhood in spirit.

We are so profoundly proud to witness our young volunteers embracing this heritage, nurturing their well-being with such grace, and radiating a loving energy. It's moments like these that truly define the heart of Sevankur Bharat.

Waari Seva Experience at Nanded

From 21st to 23rd June, Sevankur Bharat Nanded Division, in collaboration with Savangadi Katta, organized a three-day Charan Seva and Health Camp for the Warkaris.

170 students and more than 20 consultants came together to serve thousands of Warkaris who walk miles with love for Mauli in their hearts.

For many of us, this was more than seva. It was a connection to something much greater. Together, we were able to reach and serve over 3000 Warkaris in just three days.

This was not just about medical support. It was about darshan through service, bhakti through action, and seva as a way of life. As we chanted with them and served them, we too walked a few steps closer to Panduranga.

Snehamilan - An Evening of Bonding, Laughter, and Seva Spirit

On 22nd June, a memorable Snehamilan was organised by Sevankur Bharat in Dhule. A total of 108 students from four medical colleges came together to connect, share, and celebrate the spirit of seva.

Dr. Shekhar Suryawanshi (Deogiri Prant Upkram Sah Pramukh) introduced Sevankur's mission and journey, while Dr. Swapnil Deore (Dhule Shahar Palak) shared a motivating speech. Radhika Madane led the group in a team song that brought everyone together.

Dr. Samruddhi Pawar (Dhule Vibhag Baudhik Pramukh) introduced the upcoming DHR visit, and Shravani Janve concluded the event with a warm vote of thanks.

This event was made possible with the support of Dr. Nitin Patil, Dr. Shekhar Suryawanshi, Dr. Samruddhi Pawar, and Manish Nikam. Special gratitude was extended to Mrs. Rachana Agrawal for providing the farmhouse. This Snehamilan was a celebration of connection and care.

A Visit to Bhawana Kapoor's Home, Raipur

On 28th June, Sevankur Bharat mentors and seniors visited Bhawana Kapoor's home, a dedicated 3rd-year MBBS student from Raipur.

Dr. Ashwinikumar Tupkary, along with Dr. Avinash, Dr. Shaktiman, and Kuldeep, visited her home. The meeting was filled with conversations, reflections on her journey so far, and meaningful guidance for the path ahead.

Moments like these remind us that Sevankur is not just an organisation, it is a family that grows closer with every visit, every conversation, and every gesture of care.

21

Waari Gogalgaon Medical Camp

On 17th June, this spirit of seva came alive once again in the village of Gogalgaon.

As a final-year MBBS student, balancing academics and service is never easy. With the support of Dhruv Vikhe Patil Sir, everything aligned in just an hour. What started as a plan for 20 volunteers turned into a family of 37 Sevankur members.

At Gogalgaon, we conducted basic health checkups, distributed medicines, and offered charan seva to the Warkaris. As we left, one thought stayed with us:

“True living happens when we choose to serve”.

-Soham Dnyaneshwar Kahane, Sevankur College Head
(Pravara Rural Medical College, Loni)

On 3rd June 2025, an introductory session on Sevankur Bharat was conducted at the RSS Prathmik Varg in Navapur, Nandurbar district.

The session was led by Dr. Gaurav Koranne (Dhule Shahar Palak) and Dr. Shekhar Suryawanshi (Deogiri Prant Upakram Sah Pramukh).

22

A visit to Dr. Giridhar Mane's Home

On 22nd June, we visited Dr. Giridhar Mane's home at Gangakhed, Parbhani. This visit was an opportunity to reconnect, express gratitude, and share thoughts on how Sevankur's journey has continued to evolve with his guidance.

Chaitanya Jadhav (DSCGMC Nanded College Pramukh), Gayatri Magare (CSMSS Dental College Pramukh) also accompanied us.

-Dr. Jayesh Talankar
