Message from Coordinator (Sanyojak)

“ Dear Well-wishers,

As we complete another year of working to create socially conscious healthcare leaders at Sevankur Bharat, I feel an immense sense of pride in what we have achieved collectively.

Our goal has always been to inspire and equip the next generation of medical professionals with the values, skills, and compassion required to not just treat ailments but make a true difference in patients' lives.

One of our most impactful projects, "One Week for Nation," has played a crucial role in offering valuable volunteering opportunities to medical students in the tribal regions of our country. Through this initiative we have given the students a deeper insight into the diverse healthcare challenges faced by underserved communities.

This past year has been marked by remarkable growth and progress. We have engaged with 17400+ students across the country through 300+ different activities and events.

I thank our committee members and volunteers for their dedication. Their passion, hard work, and commitment have been the driving force behind our success.

As we look to the future, I am filled with optimism and enthusiasm. We are committed to further expanding our reach and impact. Together, we can create a healthcare system that is not only advanced in technology and skill but also grounded in human values.

Thank you for your continued support and dedication to our cause.

*Sincerely,
Dr. Nitin Gadewad*

INTRODUCTION TO SEVANKUR BHARAT

'Sevankur Bharat' is a platform for holistic development of medical students with the aim to inspire them to work for the society and not, just, for personal gains.

- Network of like-minded students: Of, by, and for medical students across the country.
- Platform to derive inspiration from interactions with senior doctors
- “One Week for Nation”: Providing volunteering opportunity to medical students in tribal areas of the country

The Genesis

Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Vaidyakiya Pratishthan (BAVP) embarked on a pioneering project to cultivate socially conscious healthcare leaders that would serve their respective communities through selfless medical practice and leadership.

Sevankur Bharat began in 1997 with informal discussions with undergraduate medical students of Government Medical College, Chh. Sambhajinagar.

Home Visits

- At Sevankur Bharat, we believe in giving a personal touch to each activity. Visits to students' homes by senior doctors is one such attempt.
- This informal gathering helps us to understand the background of students.
- It also gives the parents confidence and reassures that their children are in good hands and they are a part of a positive developmental movement.

College Campus Visits

- Similar to home visits, students of Sevankur Bharat visit campuses to interact informally with other students.
- With these interactions students get to know their fellow medics and understand their ideas, views and develop a bond that lasts long.

GOVERNOR'S MANTRA TO MEDICAL STUDENTS

Treat patients as your relatives

Calls for mass awareness on sickle cell anaemia disease

OUR STAFF REPORTER
Indore

Governor Mangu Bhai Patel appreciated medical students from across the country who served tribals for a week in Jhabua under Ek Saptah Desh Ke Naam (One week for the country) programme.

Speaking at valedictory function of the programme held at Ravindra Natya Grih on Wednesday, the governor said that week-long stay in forest area serving tribals would help them look at life anew. He also commended institutions that organised the event.

RSS leaders, including Central Zone chief Ashok Sohni, West Zone chief Dr. Jayantibhai Bhadesia, Dr. Ashok Khandelwal, Dr. Rajesh Pawar, Dr. Kiran Alhat and Dr. Aarti Rojekar were also present on the stage.

The Governor said, "Doctors should achieve perfection in life with the spirit of service. If you see a patient coming to your place, you should treat them as your relatives. See the image of mother, father, brother and sister in them. Try to develop this vision."

He said that unique confluence of education and service was witnessed in Sevankur Bharat programme.

The 300 medical students, who stayed in Jhabua for a week and provided service, care and treatment to villagers under the guidance of Sivaganga Sanstha, deserve appreciation, he added.

Reminiscing about the past, the Governor said that visited Jhabua to attend Halma programme - a wonderful and pious tradition of contributing towards one's land. He stressed on the need of creating mass awareness on sickle cell anaemia prevalent in tribal area.

Patel said that as Madhya Pradesh Governor he had been working towards creating mass awareness and eradicating the disease.

"All universities of the state are playing a role in creating awareness on sickle cell anaemia by adopting five villages each and identifying patients," he added.
